The Environmental Assessment (Scotland) Act 2005

Aberdeen City Council has prepared a Proposed Local Development Plan and associated documents including a Proposed Action Programme, Proposed Supplementary Guidance, a Strategic Environmental Assessment Environment Report, a Habitats Regulation Assessment and an Equality and Human Rights Impact Assessment. The Proposed Plan and supporting documents set out our policies and proposals for the use of land and identifies sites proposed for development. Everyone who wishes, now has the chance to make representations on the content of the documents.

You can look at copies of the documents, and pick up response forms, at the following places:

- All public libraries in Aberdeen (except Kaimhill Library) during normal library hours. (The documents will also be available for viewing in the mobile library serving the Garthdee area throughout the consultation period).
- The Point, Ground Floor, St Nicholas House, Broad Street, Aberdeen (9am to 5pm, Mon-Fri).
- Enterprise, Planning and Infrastructure, 8th Floor, St Nicholas House, Broad Street Aberdeen AB10 1GY (9am to 5pm, Mon-Fri).

The documents and response forms can also be viewed or downloaded from the Council's website at: www.aberdeencity.gov.uk/localdevelopmentplan. Separate response forms have been prepared for the Proposed Plan and for Supplementary Guidance.

We will also hold a series of staffed exhibitions at the following venues, dates and times. The purpose of these drop-in events is for us to show people what is in the Proposed Plan, to advise them on how to respond to it, and to explain the next stages in the process.
